CALLEBAUT
BELGIUM 1911

Crafted in Belgium

FROM BEAN TO BAR

since 1911.

Our cocoa beans come from sustainable and recognised sources directly from the farmers under the care of the Cocoa Horizons Foundation.

The beans ferment for 3 to 8 days between the banana leaves, changing their flavor from bitter to chocolate.

Our beans come only from the main harvest - they're bigger and with a stronger flavor. Before shipment, they go under another quality check.

In the next 2 to 4 days, they are dried in the sun.

The beans transported from Ghana, Ecuador and the Ivory Coast go to Antwerp where the flavor of each batch is determined.

Thanks to this selection of flavour profiles, Master Blenders manually compose the beans for the perfect flavor.

Then the beans are split open, and the cocoa nibs are ground to a smooth cocoa liquor - the heart and soul of our chocolates.

Whole beans are roasted! The shell protects them and keeps the aromas and flavors preserved inside.

Depending on the recipe, the cocoa liquor is combined with high quality ingredients, such as vanilla, milk or sugar.

This mixture is passed through a 5-roll refiner and then it is carefully subjected to a process of conching which takes a minimum of 60 hours.

It is only this smooth and creamy chocolate that is tempered by us into individual shapes with our clients logo.

COCOA HORIZONS – chocolate from responsible sources

All our chocolates, pralines, and delicacies in chocolate are covered by the Cocoa Horizons Certificate.

This program supports cocoa farmers in producing countries and guarantees that the beans used in SLODKIE products come from responsible and sustainable sources.

With Cocoa Horizons, you can be sure, that by choosing SLODKIE sweets, you choose the highest quality chocolate that also supports people and the planet.

On our packaging, you will find the black-and-white Fairtrade Mark with an arrow.

• The black-and-white version ensures visual consistency on minimalist packaging designs, while remaining equally valid and recognizable as the colored logo.

• Trusted sourcing – every certified ingredient is obtained with respect for workers' rights, the environment, and local communities.

• Fair trade principles – farmers receive fair payment as well as an additional Fairtrade Premium dedicated to local community development.

JAKOB HABERFELD COLLECTION

The Jakob Haberfeld collection embodies the nobility of Belgian chocolate and tradition—inspired by the craftsmanship of a historic distillery that has been operating continuously since 1804. It is a culinary journey where every detail counts—from craftsmanship and quality to elegance. The stars of the show are pralines and bars made from the finest chocolate, enriched with fruity accents and the depth of aromatic additions. Each product has been designed to create a balanced composition – intense, refined, and perfectly harmonious.

JAKOB HABERFELD COLLECTION

Personalized packaging emphasizes the prestige of the collection, and distinctive graphic motifs inspired by the brand's history add a unique, boutique style. It is a line that delights both in taste and form, offering an unforgettable gift for chocolate connoisseurs and anyone who likes a product that tells a story.

Made from natural cherries with and without pits, macerated for months with aromatic herbs and spices, and refined through a fivefold distillation and quadruple filtration process, the liqueur reveals a deep, juicy sweetness balanced by a subtle note of cherry stone. Pure mountain spring water, transported directly from a protected source, completes this noble composition.

In creamy pralines and filled chocolate bars, fruity accents gently merge with a velvety core, creating a sophisticated harmony of sweetness and delicate tartness. These creations embody artisanal craftsmanship and invite slow, mindful indulgence.

OUR PACKAGING SOLUTIONS

Sustainable choices.
Exceptional quality.

COMPOSTABLE FOILS – product safety and care for the planet

Foil is an indispensable element of food packaging – but it can also be environmentally friendly. That's why we introduced 100% compostable foils, which meet strict food safety standards and follow the principles of sustainable development.

Why is it the right choice?

- Ecology in practice – made from over 90% renewable resources (including FSC®-certified wood fibers),
- Compostable – suitable for both industrial and home composting,
- Safe for the product – provides an effective barrier against gases and moisture, keeping sweets fresh and secure,
- A modern alternative to plastic – reduces the use of traditional foil by up to 60–70%,
- Supports your brand image – shows that your company truly cares for the environment.

Naturally fresh

Products in compostable foil have a shorter shelf life (e.g. candies 12 months vs. 24 months in traditional foil).

This means they are not artificially preserved with additional chemicals or plastic barriers – keeping their natural character and further emphasizing your brand's sustainable choice.

By choosing compostable foils, you gain guaranteed product safety and a real contribution to protecting the planet.

BLEND & TELL YOUR AROMA STORY

If SLODKIE blends aren't quite your taste, take the initiative and create your own tea.

Premium brands are recognized by their details. These details create an aura of uniqueness—sometimes subtle, sometimes bold, but always consistent. Tea can be one of those details. Not a ready-made blend from a catalog, but a blend designed from scratch – exclusively for your brand.

The process in our configurator is simple, yet the effect is strategic:
choose your base and three extras from fruits, petals, spices, and other ingredients.

CHOOSE THE BASE
black or green tea

black leaf tea | green leaf tea

ADD FRUIT
a note that brings freshness and natural sweetness

cherry | lemon peel | plum

apple | orange peel | cranberry

REACH FOR PETALS

YOUR FINAL TEA BLEND!

This is how a product that acts as sensory branding is created:
it sticks in the memory, builds loyalty, and sets you apart from the competition.
Because clients may forget an advertising slogan. But a taste that becomes your signature will stick in their memory.
